Applications must be received by the advertised deadline in order to be considered. If you would like to apply but, for any reason, cannot meet the deadline, please contact us as soon as possible in advance of the deadline as it may be possible to seek a limited extension in exceptional circumstances.

In order to be eligible for a bursary, applicants must:

- be current students of the University of Cambridge
- be studying within one of the Schools of the Physical Sciences, the Biological Sciences, Technology or Clinical Medicine (see http://map.cam.ac.uk/directory/ for details)
- have a confirmed place to continue their studies at the University of Cambridge in the next academic year

NB - you must be returning to study within one of the Schools mentioned above

Bursaries are intended for the benefit of the applicant only and are not transferable. Bursaries are for use during the long vacation in the year the award is made only and are not transferable; if successful applicants are not able to complete the course in the specified year, the bursary must be repaid in full and a new application submitted in the following year.

Eligible projects must:

- enable the applicant to study a foreign language overseas
- take place over the long vacation at the end of the current academic year
- last not more than four weeks
- be supported by a recommendation from your Tutor or Supervisor

Applicants should demonstrate that the following criteria are met:

- Successful prior language learning (in the language needed where possible)
- Demonstrable benefit to your studies, research and/or future career aspirations
- Successful completion of CULP courses (in the Language Centre) where possible
- You will be completing intensive (i.e. minimum 20 hours per week) language training

Please note that previous successful applicants are unlikely to be supported for a second time.

Applications can be made for:

- course fees
- travel costs *
- accommodation †

* travel costs will only be met where language study is the main or only reason for your trip † accommodation costs will only be met for the duration of the language courses

SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS

The Bursary Committee meets in mid-late May and to consider applications and we will contact you as soon as possible thereafter. If your application is successful, we will contact you as soon as possible.

1. We will contact you to offer the bursary and request any additional information (certification, etc.) requested by the Bursary Committee
2. Once you have accepted the bursary, we will issue a cheque for 80% of the award amount
3. On receipt of your project report (including the report coversheet available from www.langcen.cam.ac.uk/pressland/ and a copy of any certification received, we will issue a cheque for the remaining 20% of the award. The deadline for submitting project reports is 31 October.
4. Reports will be judged by the Bursary Committee, with an additional special award of £150 for the top-ranked one. There may be up to two runners up, who will be awarded £50 each.
5. The winning report(s) will be posted on the Language Centre website
