Coronavirus (COVID - 19) — LC Latest News

• The Language Centre's buildings are closed and all staff are working from home.

• The John Trim Centre is closed; reopening scheduled for Monday 20.04.2020, but obviously this is subject to Government and University guidance at the time.

• Easter Term started this week, all CULP teaching is being delivered online using the Zoom conferencing/teaching tool for synchronous, interactive communication (See CULP online technical requirements) and Moodle. Fees are heavily reduced.

• Speaking Practice: Conversation Hours and Friends without Frontiers are going ahead during Easter Term remotely as specified above (See Advising and Learning online technical requirements).

• Advising Sessions are being offered during Easter Term remotely as specified above (See Advising and Learning online technical requirements).

Last reviewed Friday 24 April 2020