Coronavirus (COVID - 19) — LC Latest News

- The Language Centre's buildings are now closed and all staff are working from home.

- The John Trim Centre is now closed; reopening scheduled for Monday 20.04.2020, but obviously this is subject to government and University guidance at the time.

- For Easter Term only, all CULP teaching will be delivered online using the Zoom conferencing/teaching tool for synchronous, interactive communication (See CULP online technical requirements) and Moodle. Fees are heavily reduced.

- Speaking Practice: Conversation Hours and Friends without Frontiers will also go ahead during Easter Term remotely as specified above (See Advising and Learning online technical requirements).

- Advising Sessions will also be offered during Easter Term remotely as specified above (See Advising and Learning online technical requirements).

Last reviewed Monday 06 April 2020