

Language Centre Services: Local Privacy Notice

The Language Centre uses your personal information to process your application to access the John Trim Centre and / or CULP courses, and may also use it to contact you for operational purposes, including, but not limited to, closure dates, class rescheduling.

We use your personal information in order to deliver our contractual obligations to you as a user of our services.

We do not share your personal information with any other party. If you would like further information, please visit <https://www.information-compliance.admin.cam.ac.uk/data-protection/general-data>

May 2022